Fair Skies, Temperatures to Stay Cool

Fair skies and cool temperatures are expected in Arkansas over the weekend as a cold front dominates the state's weather picture.
A high pressure system moving eastward out of Texas crossed the state early today, leaving the cool temperatures and clearing the skies.
Texas is under the influence of the same high pressure system, assuring Arkansas football fans of fair skies and cool temperatures for a perfect football weekend. Arkansas plays the University of Texas at Austin Saturday.

ing the weight of the spaceship from about 29,000 to 25,000 pounds.
The burst of energy from the 2,500-pound thrust engine temporarily added 1,120 miles an hour to the speed of the vehicle. Had the astronauts fired only their east-west line of flight, they would have shot several thousand miles into space.
To prevent this, Schirra pointed the craft directly south and fired the engine out-of-plane—at right angles to the normal flight path. A great amount of energy is required to shift from one plane to another in space, so the resulting change in orbital path was minimal.
The high point on the orbital path was raised from 174 to about 277 miles. The low point of 103 miles was raised less than a mile.

The spaceship wound up about 70 miles south of its original path. Schirra then turned it back to its line of flight and Apollo 7 assumed its normal orbital speed of about 17,500 miles an hour. The increase in speed imparted by the engine had been absorbed by the out-of-plane maneuver.
Schirra was in a good mood when he awakened today and, referring to Apollo 7's four live telecasts earlier this week, said he'd like "to try for an Emmy for the best TV series."
Astronaut William Pogue, capsule communicator on the ground, replied: "You mean a hammy?"
The television show was cancelled today because of a busy schedule.

Files Breach of Contract Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Chuck Connors filed a $100,000 breach of contract suit Wednesday against producer Ivan Tors, claiming in Superior Court that Tors agreed in 1967 to use him six months later he would not do so.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A committee composed of persons who fought to defeat a proposed amendment to legalize gambling in 1964 announced today the formation of another committee to support the candidacy of Republican Lynn Davis for secretary of state.

The group calls itself the Committee for Good Government.

Davis seeks the position sought by incumbent Kelly Bryant, a Democrat.

Dr. William E. Brown of Pine Bluff, chairman of the committee, said Davis "has shown himself as an officer who will enforce all the laws of the state."

He said the secretary of state is charged with accepting questionnaires filed out by groups seeking club charters under the state's private club law.

Davis, Dr. Brown said, will see that any group forming a club does so within the law.

He said it was an interdenominational group.

Other officers of the committee are James B. Gannaway, Mrs. Edgar F. Dixon and Dr. S. A. Whitlow, all of Little Rock.

Davis is credited with halting gambling in Hot Springs when he served briefly as State Police director last year. He led several raids on night clubs in the city before the state Supreme Court ruled that he was not eligible to serve as director.

Humphrey didn't mention the war as he campaigned for labor votes, which he admitted are drifting to Wallace.

The vice president went on a handshaking tour of Ford Motor Co.'s River Rouge plant near Detroit and told a noontime rally Wallace is a "union-busting governor."

Humphrey said union men apparently fear they'll lose jobs to Negroes unless they vote for Wallace, but Humphrey predicted there will be plenty of jobs to go around under a Democratic Humphrey's campaign got a boost in New York state, where the state Supreme Court struck Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's name from the ballot.

McCarthy, who lost the Democratic presidential nomination to Humphrey, had asked he not be placed on the ballot but McCarthy supporters had circulated petitions, anyway.

A magazine of the publishing industry released a tally showing 483 of the nation's daily newspapers have endorsed Nixon, 93 have endorsed Humphrey and 10 have endorsed Wallace.

The magazine, Editor & Publisher, noted Nixon was also heavily preferred in 1960, when he lost to John F. Kennedy.

Wallace said during a campaign swing through Texas "When you vote for the Ameri-

Probe Shows More Than Work Refusal

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller says a preliminary investigation reveals that Monday's sit-down strike by Cummins Prison Farm inmates was something more than a refusal to work.

The strike ended when prison authorities fired shotgun blasts into about 75 penned-up prisoners, wounding 24.

Rockefeller said Thursday night, at a regional rally here that the action by the prison officials had, in effect, "put down a revolt in the making."

Rockefeller pointed out that authorities using rifles had killed eight persons in a prison revolt in Oregon and slain six others in a similar revolt in South Carolina.

He also answered charges by his Democratic opponent, Marion H. Crank, that his administration mismanaged the prison system. He said the farm fields at the prison had yielded a record $2 million produce and that this "came without a strap."

The governor told about 4,000 enthusiastic persons at the rally that the prisoners are being treated "like humans, not animals" under his administration.

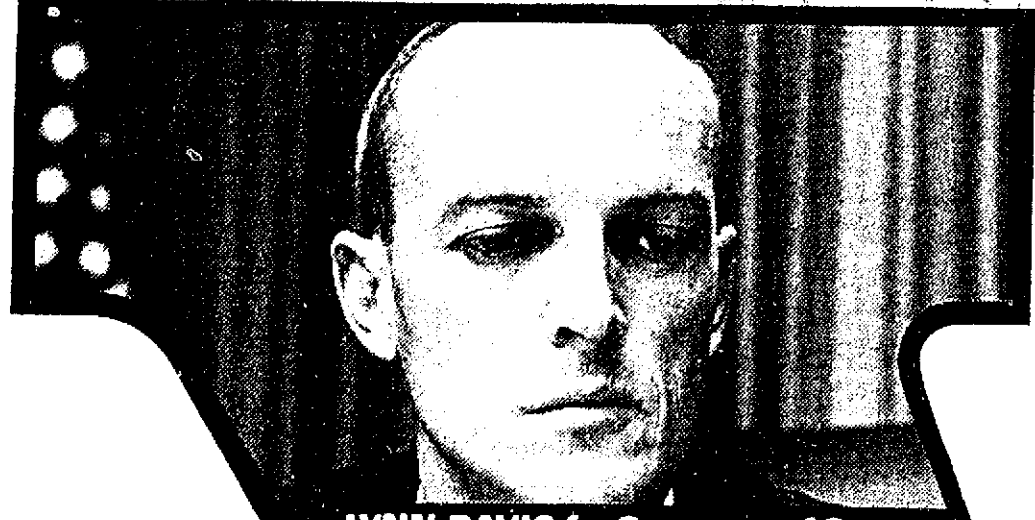

Rockefeller, who says his administration has shut down gambling at Hot Springs, was interrupted by applause when he said he felt that a branch of the Smithsonian Institution would be a better tourist attraction than gambling.

Representatives of the Smithsonian are considering a proposal to locate a branch museum at Hot Springs.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy's remarriage will end her Secret Service protection and government pension of $10,000 a year, government sources say.

Secret Service protection for her two children, John Jr., 7, and Caroline, 10, will continue, however, until they are 16 unless such protection is declined. The presidential widow's pension and the Secret Service protection were among various special privileges Congress voted for Mrs. Kennedy after her husband was assassinated in November 1963. Those two privileges were to end with remarriage.

A $50,000 payment for office and staff, later cut to $30,000 was ended July 1, 1967 when she said she didn't need it any more.

A Post Office spokesman said a legal decision probably will be needed to determine whether remarriage will put an end to free mail privileges, also granted by Congress.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

ANSWER TO A MOTHER • IN-LAW, ALIAS GRANDMOTHER

Dear Helen: You of all people should know there are two sides to every question. That "Anonymous Grandmother" who described one mean daughter-in-law while praising the rest of her family probably had a case. Then again, she might deserve what she gets.

Tell me, Helen, what is a daughter-in-law supposed to feel for a mother-in-law who:

1. Tells untrue, disparaging stories about her other in-laws to me and others?
2. Lies right to my face about my husband — things which make him appear ignorant and place her in a good light?
3. Gives clothes, furniture, toys and money to her other married son and nothing to us?
4. Promises but never delivers?
5. Gives "seconds and irregulars" as gifts when her husband makes over $15,000 a year?
6. Ignores me, won't even speak to me at a family gathering?

7. Snubs my parents and degrades her other son-in-laws?

8. Treats us like nobodies, then expects love, gifts, and family gatherings on holidays?

9. Purposely invites my husband over when she knows I cannot come? Calls when I won't be home.

10. Refused to pay my husband's college tuition, but sends the other children to the best prep schools and colleges? (My husband is not a poor student.)

I could go on, Helen, but you wouldn't believe the things she does. I've even asked her what I've done wrong. She'll say SHE is wrong, dismiss it, and for two months everything's fine. Then it starts all over. If it wasn't for my wonderful husband I'd be glad to forget Ex-cedrin Headache Number 28 even exists! — ANONYMOUS DAUGHTER-IN-LAW.

Dear D-I-N-L: This won't change a bad situation (nothing can, short of distance, I'm afraid), but perhaps you'll feel better if you see this woman's problem as a character deficiency, not a personal grudge against you and your family. She may be a good deal more unhappy, having to live with herself, then she can ever make anyone else (except her poor husband).

On the other hand, perhaps I'm only seeing YOUR viewpoint. As you say, there are two sides to every question. . . . — H.

Dear Helen: Outside of the religious or moral aspects, there's another reason why "nudity ISN'T the only way to go."

"Kept Underwraps" thinks life would be so free and pure without clothes. He forgets that clothes enhance personality, minimize deficiencies (or cover them), give us pride in ourselves. When you're blue, a new outfit will snap you out of it. What can the nudist do? Carry a different flower? Most people haven't the inner strength to compete without the confidence clothing gives them.

I'll bet that if suddenly it was decreed we go bare, within a month people would be making jewelry and ornaments so that they'd be "different" again. . . . And soon they'd get back to covering for the same reason. Humans haven't enough fortitude to shed their clothes completely. Nudity reveals too much — and I don't mean simply skin! — THINKER.

Charge Dropped

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Contempt of court charges were dismissed against actor Mickey Rooney Wednesday after his sixth wife, Margaret, told Superior Court he had paid $1,072 in back alimony. Rooney, 47, also agreed to pay $1,000 in attorney fees.

Mrs. Rooney, 46, received a default decree last Dec. 14. Rooney agreed to pay $350 a month alimony. Married in Las Vegas, Nev., in 1966, the Rooneys separated later the same year.

If crime doesn't pay, why have there been 1,877 pardons and paroles, including murderers, rapists and aggravated assault cases, since February, 1967?

Marion Crank wants to know what kind of justice Rockefeller is talking about...for the convicts — or for the victims.

The crime rate is up. So is Arkansas' pardon and parole rate. Governor Rockefeller and his personally appointed pardon and parole board are literally emptying our penitentiaries. Just look at the charts. Look what's happening. Look at the repeaters. Then let's look at our current system. Makes you wonder, doesn't it? Now Marion Crank is all for justice, too. But he also believes that paroles and pardons shouldn't be handed out like peanuts. He simply believes that the court decisions of our judges and juries should be upheld.

Homecoming Tonight for Bobcats

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

When the Hope Bobcats and the Fairview Cardinals take up sides tonight at 7:30 p.m. in Hammons Stadium, there will be more on stake than simply winning or losing.

For the Bobcats, a win could set them off with momentum to forget the 2-3-1 mark they presently are sporting. And since it's Homecoming, the Cats are keyed up eight miles high for this one. They might also remember that it's been at least three years since a Hope team has won two straight games.

Meanwhile there is Fairview, riding high and vulnerable with that much-publicized 6-0 record and Top Ten state ranking. The record and even the scores may be more impressive than they really are, because the Cardinals' opposition hasn't provided much to cough about.

By the way, Fairview also is bidding for their second consecutive 4-AA championship. Last year the Bobcats nearly knocked the props out of those title dreams before the Cardinals came back and won 27-19.

Of course, Fairview is a solid favorite, but it isn't that easy. The Bobcats will be high as heaven with Homecoming and all, but an outstanding advantage is the fact that Hope High School dismissed classes at noon today, giving the Bobcats a full afternoon of rest while the faculty has its special meeting.

Knocking off the Cardinals won't be easy, and the Bobcats won't have to do it cautiously. They've got a plan, tough, and if the plan is followed to a "T," you had better watch out for the Hope Bobcats this evening. Everyone has completely forgotten that we play Magnolia next week, and this is very satisfying.

Fairview is the team to beat, and the Bobcats have the tools at hand. With a large Homecoming crowd and an afternoon's rest, the Bobcats will let 'em have it the best way they know how. The Cardinals may think they've got it made, but they don't have Cornell Williams. When the Cardinals leave Hope tonight, they'll know very well what they've been through.

It's going to be tough, but the Hope Bobcats will make the town proud of them tonight, win or lose. Only this writer is calling it the downfall of the Fairview Cardinals, as they will fall into the losing ranks by the count of 20-14, welcoming the Bobcats back into the 4-AA race after too long of an absence.

The game will be broadcast over KXAR, with pre-game activities beginning at 7:15 p.m. live from Hammons Stadium, and the coaches' interview Ronnie Higgins will be heard beginning at 8:30. If you are attending the game itself, try to be there in time for the Homecoming ceremonies, which start around 7 p.m.

Juniors Hit Nashville by 19-0

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

After a first half whose finish defies explanation, the Hope Bobkittens hung on with a fired-up defense and rolled to a 19-0 win over the Nashville Scrappers last night at Hammons Stadium.

It was the Bobkittens' second win in a row and raised their season mark to 4-1, and Hope was never headed after a slow start. The Kittens rose up early to halt a Nashville drive, and scored with uncanny quickness.

During the first quarter, Hope did absolutely nothing. The Kittens took the opening kickoff and were held in three downs, and after two minutes of play gave the ball over to the visitors. Hope didn't know it then, but they were to be on defense for more than seven minutes.

The Scrappers used three third-down passes to move the ball downfield, and finally picked up a first down at the Bobkitten six at the end of the quarter. On first down Hope rose to the occasion, though, and threw Jimmy Walston for a six-yard loss. Two runs failed, and Walston, an outstanding kicker, set up to kick a field goal from the 17.

On a beautiful effort the Bobkittens blitzed through and blocked it, knocking the pigskin free. David Chance picked it up for the Bobkittens and seemed gone for an 80-yard TD sprint, but the officials had in some way already blown the ball dead.

So the Kittens took over from their own ten, and QB Steve Harris pulled off a good run for a first down at the 12. On third down, though, fullback Lynn Norton had the ball knocked away, and Nashville recovered at the Hope 28.

This time the Scrappers could do nothing, and were held on downs after gaining only six yards. It was now time for the Bobkittens to strike, with the score 0-0 and only two minutes left in the half.

It took them 12 seconds, as tailback Ray Wheelington found daylight around the right side and sailed the 78 yards to paydirt. Lynn Norton ran for the PAT, and it was 7-0 with 1:48 left. Only the action still hadn't started.

Nashville took the ensuing kickoff, but on third and 14 Rodney Burke jumped on a Scrappier bobbie to put Hope in business at the 34 with only 0:40 on the clock. People hoped that the Kittens could get in a score, but they didn't expect anything like what happened.

It all started when Harris connected with Tommy Miller on a 20-yard strike to the Nashville 13, where the Kittens had 13 weird seconds to work with. It turned out to be a few more, in a finish to a first half that would make Major Hoople have an ulcer.

After two incomplete passes, the clock ran out as Tommy Miller raced to the Nashville five. The Scrappers were called for offside, though, and the refs set up the Kittens for another play from the five. Nashville proceeded to force a full explanation, after which that forgotten penalty was marched off to give Hope one more try from the 13, our lucky number, even though the visitors could not see that one out either.

Justice gave the Bobkittens one last play, after a four-minute delay for explanations to both sides. No one figured Hope would score, but people forgot they were on the 13. Steve Harris rolled right, and found Miller in the back of the end zone for a heckuva touchdown. The fireworks hadn't stopped yet, though.

Norton ran the ball over for the extra point, but illegal motion was signalled against Hope. Instead of getting another shot from the eight, however, the officials ended the half at long last. Nobody cared to argue this time, and Hope at last went to the dressing rooms with a 13-0 lead.

Every fan in Hammons Stadium, of whom there were very many, tried to comprehend the events during the half, but the only definite thing was the scoreboard, which gave Hope the advantage. The third quarter was spent with neither team able to muster a first down, and nobody had any field position.

When Rodney Burke recovered his second enemy fumble at the Nashville 44, nobody thought much about it. On second down from the 41, though, Tommy Miller got the ball on a delayed series. He broke five early tackles, then hit open air at the thirty.

A few seconds later Miller had a 41-yard TD dash, with 3:45 remaining. The PAT was no good, and that was at 19-0. The Kittens won it on Homecoming, a good morale victory to carry them into a home battle with Magnolia next Thursday.

Wheelington was the leading ground gainer with nine carries for 78 yards, but Miller had the best average with 64 yards on six attempts. Lynn Norton had a good night with seven runs for a total of 35 yards, and Steve Harris gathered two yards on four attempts. Miller caught both completions for a total of 43 yards and one score.

It was a great shutout by the defense, which rose up several times to halt Scrappier offenses. Rodney Burke and Norton led the defense, and Harris played a good game, intercepting a pass and returning it 20 yards. Now they look to a tough 4-AA opponent in Magnolia with more confidence, and they showed their stuff to a crowd which was a record of sorts for a junior high contest last night.

Tigers Play Atlanta Here Sat.

By ARTHUR MAXWELL
Yerger Sports Writer

After five road games the Yerger Tigers will return home to play Booker T. Washington High of Atlanta (not Texarkana) Texas.

The Tigers are remembering their 54-6 loss to Atlanta last year, so they will really be ready for Atlanta this time.

After the Tigers victory over Prescott last week, they stand 4-0-1 for all games and 2-0-1 in their conference.

The Tigers can't afford to gamble because this Atlanta team is very fast.

The Tigers are anxious to meet Atlanta so come out to Hammons Stadium Saturday night, kick off 7:30 p.m., to see the Tigers as they take on Booker T. Washington High of Atlanta, Texas.

Thinks Adams Should Be All-America

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles has hit the campaign trail.

His candidate is defensive halfback Cary Adams who is running for All-American.

"If we have ever had an All-American, it's him," says Broyles. "He's playing All-American ball in all phases of his play—tackling, pass defense and punt returns."

"He's doing everything at his position as well as anyone we've ever had," says Broyles of the 5-foot-10, 179-pound senior from Piggott, Ark. "He's a great athlete."

Adams intercepted seven passes as a sophomore and was named to the All-Southwest Conference team. His performance fell off slightly last year but he led the Razorback secondary in defensive statistics with 30 tackles, 31 assists, nine pass plays broken up, an interception and three fumble recoveries.

"When I was a sophomore other teams were behind and had to throw more," Adams says. "Last year they were ahead and tried to control the ball by running more. I like it when they throw."

Coach Hootie Ingram, who handles the Arkansas secondary, shares Broyles' convictions about Adams.

"You tend to find the interceptions and the punt returns, but he's also the second leading tackler on the team," says Ingram. "He has made 24 unassisted tackles in four games and eight assists."

"He's a good all around performer," says Ingram. "Pass defense is very definitely one of his strong points, but he also supports our ends on the run real well."

"I think if we have a real good record then Adams should be an All-American," says Ingram.

Figures Hogs Will Win by One

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Take heed, before predicting the Arkansas-Texas football game.

First, consider the records of both teams.

Second, consider the individual matchups.

Then, after determining the game should be close and that Arkansas' fourth team defensive right tackle may be slightly stronger than Texas' fourth team offensive tackle, take a wild guess.

Texas has beaten Oklahoma State and Oklahoma since moving Bill Bradley to flanker and giving James Street the starting nod at quarterback. Street took the Longhorns 85 yards in the final minutes last week for the winning touchdown against the Sooners. That march is bound to give Street confidence in himself and build the Longhorns' confidence in their quarterback.

Street's passing is the perfect complement for the running of Chris Gilbert, Steve Worster and Ted Koy.

Arkansas, too, can move the ball. The Razorbacks are leading the Southwest Conference in scoring with an average of 35 points a game.

Bill Montgomery, a poised sophomore, makes the pro type offense go. He is second in the conference in total offense with 697 yards and is second in passing, connecting on 51 of 92 attempts.

Tailbacks David Dickey and Bill Burnett team with fullback Bruce Maxwell to give Arkansas a solid ground game. Montgomery can also run when he has to.

Both Arkansas and Texas have given up points, and it could be that the defensive unit will hold the key to the outcome. Arkansas' defense rose to a peak against TCU and may peak again Saturday at Austin, Tex.

A wild guess: ARKANSAS 24, TEXAS 23. Arkansas State University, ranked No. 10 among the small colleges, opens Southland Conference play Saturday night at set up Arkansas' first score and one against Oklahoma State that ended any hope of a Cowboy rally, and is only one steal shy of the Arkansas career record.

He also is the second leading punt returner in the conference and has taken two back for touchdowns.

Little Rock against 16th ranked Trinity. ASU's offense, paced by tailback Frank McGuigan and freshman quarterback James Hamilton, has been effective.

A victory over Trinity would benefit the Indians in several ways.

It would get them past a major hurdle in the SLC. It would probably help their national ranking and it might impress football fans in the Little Rock area.

The Indians don't figure to let an opportunity like this slip by.

ASU 21, TRINITY 14. Arkansas AM&N has won two straight including a big one last week against Southern University. The Golden Lions should have enough momentum to get past Wiley College at Wiley, Tex.

AM&N 27, WILEY 21

The big game in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference matches two unbeaten, Arkansas Tech and State College of Arkansas at Conway. Tech seems to have a little more of everything but sometimes that isn't enough in this series.

TECH 17, SCA 14

Last week's percentage was .857. Here's how we see the rest of the AIC games.

U.S. Olympic Board Issues an Apology

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — American Olympic officials handled their racial problem like a red-hot flat iron today, juggling it from one hand to the other while people wondered where it might drop.

The U.S. Olympic Committee's executive board issued a broad apology Thursday for the black power display by sprinters Tommie Smith and John Carlos at Wednesday's victory ceremony in Olympic Stadium.

Then the committee said it didn't count. They wanted to talk the matter over some more and issue another statement—with new wording—probably today.

It was obvious that U.S. Olympic leaders were embarrassed by the bizarre demonstration on the victory podium before a crowd of 60,000 and a worldwide television audience.

It was just as obvious they didn't know exactly what to do about it—whether to get tough and discipline the offenders or to play it cool and give the offenders another chance—with a STREET VENDOR blots out the sky with a fistful of balloons, helping to create a carnival atmosphere in Mexico City, where tourists have thronged to view the Olympic games now being played.

The International Olympic Committee—through President Avery Brundage, branded a racist by some of the American black athletes—was applying some heat on the American officials.

The IOC reminded the U.S. Committee that Smith and Carlos, in using the victory stand to accent the black power struggle, had violated the Games' no-politics principle.

Each wearing a black glove, Smith, 200-meter gold medalist from Lemoore, Calif., and Carlos, bronze medalist from San Jose, Calif., had lifted clenched fists in a racial salute and refused to look at the flag during playing of the Star Spangled Banner.

"I was embarrassed, all of us were embarrassed," said USOC director Everett Barnes. "It made our country look like the devil."

In the formal apology issued after a four-hour meeting Thursday, the USOC called the demonstration a discourtesy and said it "violated the basic standards of sportsmanship and good manners so highly regarded in the United States."

Declaring that no action would be taken at this time because the incident was regarded as isolated, the committee issued a veiled warning that any future violations might bring some form of discipline.

my toenails. Could this cause the nails to become thickened? My doctor says it isn't bad enough to require Fulvicin by mouth. Why should I wait until the condition is worse before treating it?

A—Ringworm is one cause of thickening of the toenails. Since local applications are of no value in treating ringworm of the nails, the only alternative is griseofulvin by mouth. Because this powerful drug can cause side effects that are worse than the disease and because to be successful it must be given for several months, I can understand your doctor's reluctance to use it for a mild infection.

Q—What causes tinea manus and eczematoid dermatitis?

A—Tinea manus is ringworm of the hands and eczematoid dermatitis is a skin inflammation resembling eczema. Eczema is now considered to be an allergic disease but eczematoid dermatitis is an infection usually caused by a staphylococcus.

Q—Will ringworm turn into skin cancer?

A—No.

Q—Can a blood test be made on a baby to determine who the father is?

A—Not conclusively. If an agglutination test of the baby's blood with the alleged father's serum is negative, this is good evidence that the man is not the father. If the test is positive, it means only that the man might be the father.

Q—My mother takes Premarin. Is this a new drug? Is it dangerous if one has had breast cancer? What is it given for?

A—This female hormone is not new. It is given to allay menopausal symptoms. In some victims of breast cancer, with spreading to other organs, it causes a brief remission but in others it accelerates the progress of the disease. In women with no history of breast cancer, it may prevent one from developing.

Unlikely That Catholics Will Approve

NEW YORK (AP) — Greek Orthodoxy, the church to which shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis belongs, would approve his planned marriage to Jacqueline Kennedy. But it was highly uncertain that her church, Roman Catholicism, would do so.

That was the mixed ecclesiastical picture today in the wake of the announcement that they would marry.

He was divorced in 1960, after 14 years of marriage and two children. Roman Catholic rules do not allow divorce.

Only if Onassis' earlier marriage were found to be invalid, and thereby annulled, would the Catholic rules sanction his marriage to Mrs. Kennedy in that church.

Catholic authorities here saw slim chances for such a determination, and in Rome, a Vatican theologian said, "It would not be a valid marriage in the eyes of the church."

But the door was open to their marriage in the Greek Catholic Church of North and South America, whose marital canon in 1961 granted approval of Onassis' divorce.

"As far as we're concerned a second marriage can be contracted in the Catholic Church," said the Rev. Constantine Eliades, an Orthodox monastic expert here.

Orthodoxy in this country authorizes divorce on various grounds, such as adultery, prolonged desertion or abandonment, or threats against the life of a partner in the marriage.

The basic canon in the Onassis case was not discussed.

Roman Catholic rules allowing annulment are considerably more restrictive. The chief conditions being marital fraud at the time of marriage, fraud by not really intending to enter a permanent, faithful marriage and to rear children.

Whether such requirements be established in the Onassis case was regarded as doubtful.

To the Catholic Church, usually seen as the most conservative of the world's religions, the Onassis case was regarded as a challenge.

The convention of the report was held in Little Rock, Ark., July 31 in Little Rock Municipal Court.

Harrison to Play Political Role

NEW YORK (AP) — Rex Harrison will play the role of Sir Charles Dike, one of England's most promising politicians before he was involved in a romantic scandal, in Sam Spiegel's film, "Victorian Scandal."

Spiegel, in London said the film is based on the Dike biography written by Ray Jenkins, now Britain's chancellor of the exchequer.

Onassis Is Self Made Millionaire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Aristotle Socrates Onassis was 16 years old and had $60 to his name when he arrived in Argentina as a Greek refugee from the Turkish holocaust.

In his wildest dreams he could hardly have imagined that 46 years later, now one of the richest men in the world, he would sit in the hand of an American President's beautiful widow, Jacqueline Kennedy.

His mother and father had married in London, but he was born in Smyrna. Once in Argentina, Onassis first worked in the oil business. By the time he was 25 his assets amounted to $100,000 and he was Greece's youngest millionaire.

His father's death in 1924 left him with a fortune of $1,000,000 and he was Greece's youngest millionaire.

He got his chance in 1926 when he married the daughter of a Greek shipping magnate. She was preparing to sail to America with her fortune and was carrying in her trunk a small chest of drawers.

Onassis bought the ship, the Onassis, and he was Greece's youngest millionaire.

gave him control of much of the world's oil tanker trade.

He married Athina Livanos, whose father was another big name in Greek shipping. Her sister, Eugenie, married Stavros Niarchos, who also had built up a huge ocean-going fleet. Both marriages ended in divorce.

Onassis liked to play host to prominent people. Guests aboard his yacht Christina included many well known names in politics, entertainment and society — the late Winston Churchill, for example.

Marla Callas, the Metropolitan Opera star, was his guest and traveling companion for years. In 1960 his wife divorced him in an Alabama court, charging mental cruelty.

Onassis had in recent years entertained various members of the Kennedy family aboard the Christina, including Jacqueline, her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, and her late husband's brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

Onassis' Known Barrier

Onassis' Known Barrier to crossing the entire Himalayan range were groups of Jesuit and Capuchin priests from China and India, who established short-lived missions in Tibet in the early 17th century.

Hanoi's Doves, Hawks Locked in Battle

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement between "Hawks" and "Doves" in Hanoi may be delaying a response to Washington proposals for ending all bombing of North Vietnam, diplomatic authorities here believe.

These authorities suggest a debate has been going on within the North Vietnamese leadership over the issue of giving assurances of limiting the war on the Communist side if President Johnson halts attacks on the North.

The Paris sources said the U.S. proposals were made contingent on firm acceptance by Hanoi of the Saigon government as a party to any ultimate peace negotiations.

Participation in some form of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Vietnam, was said to have been conceded by the United States.

The official North Vietnamese newspaper, Nhan Dan, Thursday denounced Johnson's demand for what the North Vietnamese call "reciprocity" for ending the bombing.

But U.S. officials said this appeared to be more a continuation of the familiar Hanoi position stated many times in the Paris peace talks than actual rejection of the U.S. proposals in the present situation.

Johnson's requirements have been reported to include restoration of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam, with removal of Communist forces from the zone, and an end to terror attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

U.S. officials say that arrangements for a bombing halt have been thoroughly covered in consultations with governments allied in the war, including the South Vietnamese government, and that the "hangup" is now entirely in Hanoi.

Press reports from Saigon, however, have stressed objections by President Nguyen Van Thieu to any termination of the bombing of the North without a guarantee of Communist de-escalation.

It is argued here that the North Vietnamese already have de-escalated the conflict over the last several weeks. A number of Communist military units are reported to have been withdrawn from South Vietnam, either back into North Vietnam or into neighboring Laos and Cambodia. The level of fighting has declined. These actions have been taken on communist initiative.

What Johnson wants now are practical assurances the Communists will not step up the war again if the bombing is halted. In the American view, this approach seems to get around the issue of reciprocity as raised by the Hanoi leadership.

Mae West to Make Movie

NEW YORK (AP) — Mae West, who has not appeared in movies since 1943, will make a film version early next year of a play she wrote and starred in.

Miss West, 75, appeared in her play "Sextet" in 1961 during its Florida run.

The movie will be co-produced for Warner Bros. Seven Arts by James T. Aubrey Jr., former president of the Columbia Broadcasting System television network, and Hunt Stromberg Jr., the film company announced Thursday.

Miss West has made recordings and television appearances in recent years. She is currently preparing a TV special, "A Night with Mae West."

Fulbright's Foe Denies Outside Aid

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Democratic chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is running one of the hardest races of his career against a Republican farmer-businessman seeking his first statewide office.

The campaign has pushed beyond Arkansas' borders, enlisting contributors for both sides from throughout the country.

Headquarters for Charles T. Bernard, the GOP candidate, has mailed thousands of letters scoring Fulbright's foreign policy record and asking for contributions. But Bernard denies reports that he is receiving the aid of large conservative organizations.

Bernard's letter says liberal groups are "pouring thousands of dollars into the effort to save Fulbright," who is seeking his fourth Senate term.

Hoyt Purvis, Fulbright's press aide, denies that, but says "one or two" national organizations probably have encouraged their members to contribute to the senator.

In addition, letters bearing the name of Poet Archibald MacLeish urging contributions for Fulbright have been mailed from Washington.

"With George Wallace and Richard Nixon dominating the Arkansas presidential picture, and with his Republican opponent powerfully backed by the full financial resources of the right wing across the nation, Sen. Fulbright needs substantial support," the letter says.

Fulbright won renomination in the July 30 primary, receiving 53 per cent of the vote. This was a much closer margin than the 65 per cent he had predicted.

Fulbright has been described by the primary runner-up, self-proclaimed segregationist Jim Johnson, as the "Pin-up Boy of Hanoi."

If advertising in newspapers, on billboards, radio and television is any indication, Bernard's campaign looks like the best-financed Fulbright has faced. Bernard also has aggressively stumped the state.

The graying, wealthy 41-year-old Bernard is from Earle, in the Arkansas Delta. He is a former state GOP treasurer. He describes himself as a fiscal conservative and a racial moderate and calls for an "honorable peace, not surrender" in Vietnam.

Orthodoxy in this country authorizes divorce on various grounds, such as adultery, prolonged desertion or imprisonment, or threats against the life of a partner in the marriage.

The basis cited in the Onassis case was not disclosed.

Roman Catholic rules allowing annulment are considerably more restrictive, the chief conditions being mental illness at the time of marriage, or fraud by not really intending to enter a permanent, faithful marriage and to rear children.

Whether such factors could be established in the Onassis case was regarded doubtful.

To gain an annulment is usually a long, intricate process, requiring court hearings, evidence and witnesses.

Onassis and his first wife, Tina, were married in 1946 under Greek Orthodox auspices. Roman Catholicism regards as valid marriages of non-Catholics outside the Catholic Church, such as between Protestants or Orthodox unless one of the impediments is found making it void.

Harrison to Play Political Role

NEW YORK (AP)—Rex Harrison will play the role of Sir Charles Dike, one of England's most promising politicians before he was involved in a romantic scandal, in Sam Spiegel's film, "Victorian Scandal." Spiegel, in London said the film is based on the Dike biography written by Ray Jenkins, now Britain's chancellor of the exchequer.

Onassis Is Self Made Millionaire

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Aristotle Socrates Onassis was 16 years old and had $60 to his name when he arrived in Argentina as a Greek refugee from the Turks in 1922.

In his wildest dreams he could hardly have imagined that 46 years later, now one of the richest men in the world, he would win the hand of an American President's beautiful widow, Jacqueline Kennedy.

His mother and father had operated a tobacco business in Smyrna. Once in Argentina, Onassis too turned to the tobacco trade. By the time he was 24 his shrewd operations had earned him his first million and he was Greece's consul general in Buenos Aires.

But Onassis wanted above all to be the master of a cargo fleet.

He got his chance in 1930 when he learned that Canada was preparing to sell at scrap value ten surplus cargo vessels ranging in tonnage from 8,500 to 10,000. Onassis bought six for $120,000 and launched a maritime career which eventually gave him control of much of the world's oil tanker trade. He married Athina Livanos, whose father was another big name in Greek shipping. Her sister, Eugenie, married Stavros Niarchos, who also had built up a huge ocean-going fleet. Both marriages ended in divorce.

Onassis liked to play host to prominent people. Guests aboard his yacht Christina included many well known names in politics, entertainment and society—the late Winston Churchill, for example.

Marla Callas, the Metropolitan Opera star, was his guest and traveling companion for years. In 1960 his wife divorced him in an Alabama court, charging mental cruelty.

Onassis had in recent years entertained various members of the Kennedy family aboard the Christina, including Jacqueline, her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, and her late husband's brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

Hanoi's Doves, Hawks Locked in Battle

By JOHN HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement between "Hawks" and "Doves" in Hanoi may be delaying a response to Washington proposals for ending all bombing of North Vietnam, diplomatic authorities here believe.
These authorities suggest a debate has been going on within the North Vietnamese leadership over the issue of giving assurances of limiting the war on the Communist side if President Johnson halts attacks on the North.

The Paris sources said the U.S. proposals were made contingent on firm acceptance by Hanoi of the Saigon government as a party to any ultimate peace negotiations.

Participation in some form of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Vietnam, was said to have been conceded by the United States.

The official North Vietnamese newspaper, Nhan Dan, Thursday denounced Johnson's demand for what the North Vietnamese call "reciprocity" for ending the bombing.

But U.S. officials said this appeared to be more a continuation of the familiar Hanoi position stated many times in the Paris peace talks than actual rejection of the U.S. proposals in the present situation.

Johnson's requirements have been reported to include restoration of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam, with removal of Communist forces from the zone, and an end to terror attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

U.S. officials say that arrangements for a bombing halt have been thoroughly covered in consultations with governments allied in the war, including the South Vietnamese government, and that the "hangup" is now entirely in Hanoi.

Press reports from Saigon, however, have stressed objections by President Nguyen Van Thieu to any termination of the bombing of the North without a guarantee of Communist de-escalation.

It is argued here that the North Vietnamese already have demonstrated their willingness to negotiate in the last several weeks. A number of Communist military units are reported to have been withdrawn from South Vietnam, either back into North Vietnam or into neighboring Laos and Cambodia. The level of fighting has declined. These actions have been taken on communist initiative.

What Johnson wants now are practical assurances the Communists will not step up the war again if the bombing is halted. In the American view, this approach seems to get around the issue of reciprocity as raised by the Hanoi leadership.

Mae West to Make Movie

NEW YORK (AP) — Mae West, who has not appeared in movies since 1943, will make a film version early next year of a play she wrote and starred in.
Miss West, 75, appeared in her play "Sextet" in 1961 during its Florida run.
The movie will be co-produced for Warner Bros. Seven Arts by James T. Aubrey Jr., former president of the Columbia Broadcasting System television network, and Hunt Stromberg Jr., the film company announced Thursday.

Fulbright's

Outside Aid

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Democratic chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is running one of the hardest races of his career against a Republican and television appearances in recent years. She is currently preparing a TV special, "A Night with Mae West."

can farmer-businessman seeking his first statewide office.
The campaign has pushed beyond Arkansas' borders, enlisting contributors for both sides from throughout the country.
Headquarters for Charles T. Bernard, the GOP candidate, has mailed thousands of letters scoring Fulbright's foreign policy record and asking for contributions. But Bernard denies reports that he is receiving the aid of large conservative organizations.
Bernard's letter says liberal groups are "pouring thousands of dollars into the effort to save Fulbright," who is seeking his fourth Senate term.

Hoyt Purvis, Fulbright's press aide, denies that, but says "one or two" national organizations probably have encouraged their members to contribute to the senator.
In addition, letters bearing the name of Poet Archibald MacLeish urging contributions for Fulbright have been mailed from Washington.
"With George Wallace and Richard Nixon dominating the Arkansas presidential picture, and with his Republican opponent powerfully backed by the full financial resources of the right wing across the nation, Sen. Fulbright needs substantial support," the letter says.

Fulbright won renomination in the July 30 primary, receiving 53 per cent of the vote. This was a much closer margin than the 65 per cent he had predicted.
Fulbright has been described by the primary runner-up, self-proclaimed segregationist Jim Johnson, as the "Pin-up Boy of Hanoi."
If advertising in newspapers, on billboards, radio and television is any indication, Bernard's campaign looks like the best-financed Fulbright has faced. Bernard also has aggressively stumped the state.

FAMILY TIES REGULAR WORSHIP

ONLY WHEN ILL

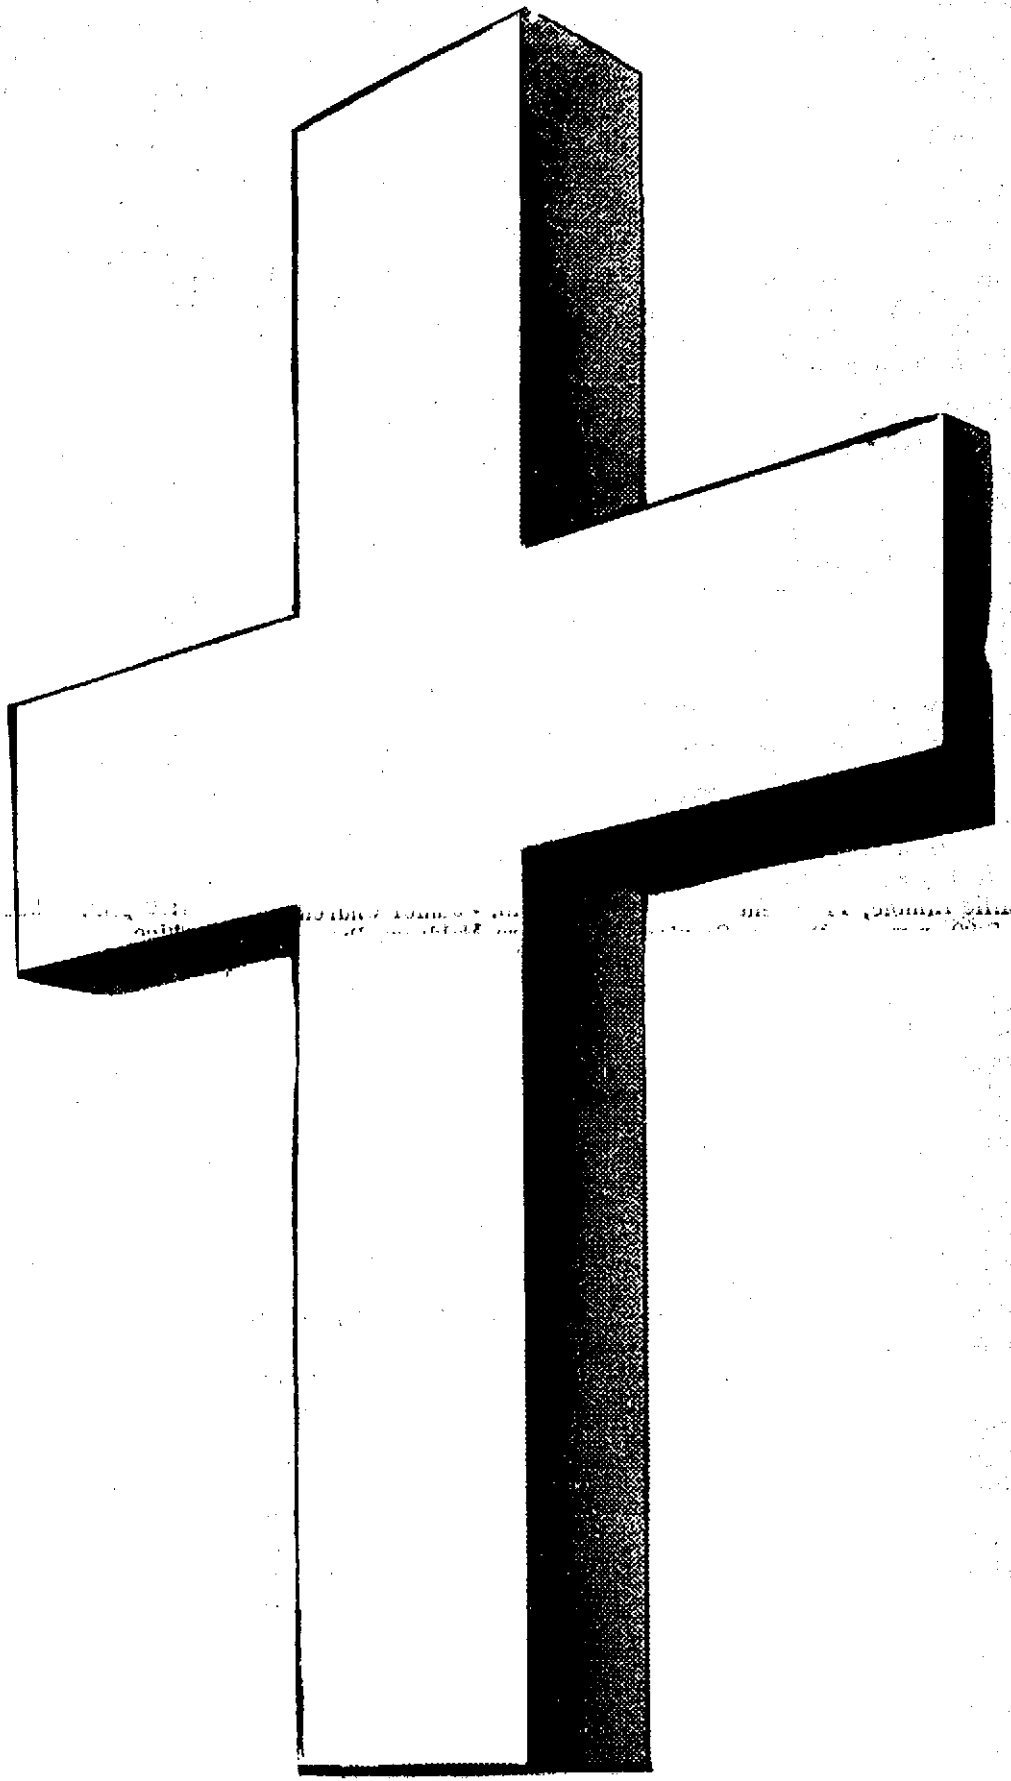

Or does your concern extend its self to his other needs?
He may need someone to lead him too, when he is well... to guide his very destiny. However, when he is seriously sick, it's a mighty good time to measure your real care, the extent to which you go to make a man of him. Of course his physical well-being is your responsibility, but since his spirit belongs to God, maybe you should have concern for it too. Don't quit the job half finished. Help him get well, but then help him get saved...
help him get to church.

Millwood Short
on Recreation;
Color Run Tuesday

The Nashville News reports that Howard county wants a recreation area developed on Millwood Lake and a delegation will make representations to the U.S. Corps of Engineers next Tuesday, Oct. 22.

The entire lake is short on facilities for recreation—Inadequate boat-launching ramps, and no safe harbors to protect commercial docks and their boats.

The lack of harbors was said to be responsible for the fact that when the Corps of Engineers called for bids a month ago on permits to build commercial docks at Beard's Bluff and Saratoga landings, in Hempstead county, reportedly there were no takers. Prospective dock operators thought it was the government's obligation to construct protective breakwaters to create safe harbors, but the government thought differently.

There is no question about the necessity of safe harbors on a lake the size of Millwood. Even on the Narrows and Quachita Lakes, where a mountainous terrain provides many natural harbors, there have been cases of storm damage to docks and boats—and the danger is magnified on Millwood because of its flat terrain.

Prime responsibility rests on the government. Millwood was constructed for the joint purpose of controlling floods and providing recreation—and the recreation end was "shorted" when the lake was allegedly completed and dedicated without paying any attention to the need of safe anchorages for docks and boats. The omission will have to be taken care of—ridiculous as it is on an investment the size of Millwood.

Currently The Star is checking on a report that subsequent to the no-taker bid offering on docks a month ago the government has made a deal for a private operator to construct a dock and his own breakwater—harbor at Beard's Bluff. The man who passed me this rumor had reason to believe it is true, but he knew no details. We are following it up and expect to have a news story later.

We plan to present our 15th full-color production next Tuesday, Oct. 22—a page layout of six Ektachrome pictures of the "Ice Capades." The 1968 show opens at Shreveport Tuesday the 22nd, running through Sunday the 27th. Our pictures deal with the older "Wizard of Oz" Ice Capades edition which appeared in Shreveport three or four years ago.

We ran the black-and-white version immediately after the "Wizard of Oz" show in Shreveport and the Ice Capades' home office in Santa Monica, Calif., wrote us they were the best actual show-production photos in the nation that year.

We make no such claim for the forthcoming color page. But most of The Star's 14 preceding four-color productions have been superior to the three-color work run by the metropolitan Dallas and Memphis newspapers. But they perform the miracle of color more regularly than we do, and of course they are pressed for time. Tuesday's scheduled publication is tentative—depending on the availability of an edition no larger than eight pages. A four-color run requires the full capacity of our 20-page press even though running only an eight-page paper.

Van Buren Man Shot, Killed

Space Engine Is Fired Successfully

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer
SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP)—With a jolting burst of energy, the Apollo 7 astronauts fired their steering engine today in the most powerful maneuver ever made by a manned spaceship.

"Yabba-dabba-doo!" shouted Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. as the huge engine flashed to life and spouted a steady tail of flame for 66 seconds as Apollo 7 raced 120 miles above the Gulf of Mexico.

"That was a real nice to-do, the machine performed beautifully," spacecraft commander Schirra reported at the completion of this vital test of the engine that one day will guide American astronauts to the moon.

Minutes earlier, the wives of Schirra, Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and civilian Walter Cunningham were disappointed at not being able to see their husbands zip over their Houston homes.

All three gathered at a boat landing at Clear Lake near the Manned Spacecraft Center, hoping to catch a glimpse of Apollo 7 as it dashed across the heavens south of Houston.

But their view was obscured by low level clouds in the south-west.

When the burn started, it was under the automatic control of the spacecraft guidance and navigation system. Schirra took control manually the last 30 seconds to demonstrate the ability of the pilot to take over in case the automatic system failed.

He reported that momentarily during the firing, the astronauts were jolted out of their weightless world and that the gravity reading in the cabin was 1 G—equal to the force of gravity at ground level.

The engine was the most powerful ever fired on a manned space ship. It had been ignited four times earlier on the Apollo 7 mission, with a maximum burn of 15 seconds. Thus, the amount of energy produced was a record.

The 66-second firing today burned two tons of fuel, reduced

Captive of Weekend TV Football Suggests Some Improvements

By JOY STILEY
NEW YORK (AP)—I admit I still don't understand all the finer points of the game, but as a captive audience for televised football every weekend I am nevertheless in a position to offer my observations, conclusions and suggestions.

I now feel qualified not only to comment on gridiron activity as presently conducted, but also to give advice on how its quality and safety can be improved and, especially, how to speed it up. Although playing time is supposed to be only one hour, I have never seen a game completed in less than two.

First of all, it's asking too much for all those boys to play with just one ball. Giving each side its own would cut down considerably on all the dangerous pushing and shoving that goes on when everybody fights for the only available ball.

Then, the players themselves should come to a firm decision about which way they want to go. Instead of chasing halfway down the field and then suddenly deciding they prefer to move in the opposite direction, after all.

They should also quit changing their minds about whether they even want to play, rather than keep running back and forth from the sidelines onto the field every few minutes.

Wife of Late John F. Kennedy to Wed Rich Greek Within 3 Days

By PHILIP DOPOULOS
Associated Press Writer
ATHENS (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy arrived in Greece Friday to marry one of the world's richest men, Aristotle Onassis, then went to his private island where they will be married Sunday.

A spokesman for Onassis, announcing the wedding date, said she had no further details nor did she have a guest list. The guests will be ferried by helicopter to Scorpis, Onassis' island, she added.

The spokesman said Onassis wanted the wedding to be as private as possible and no reporters or photographers would be permitted.

Onassis said they would spend their honeymoon on Scorpis "unless Jackie wants to make a

Economy Crisis Brings Cuts But Not on Some of Pet Home Projects

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP)—With the nation's economy facing the worst crisis in decades, Congress voted for record billions in budget slashes this election year. But many of the members who backed at national programs, jumped the traces and voted extra millions for home area projects.

One example: When one of the major federal school-aid bills came up in the House June 11, economy lost some luster. This program channels school funds into more than 300 of the 435 congressional districts.

The House voted 226 to 133 to increase the budget figure for this aid by $91 million over President Johnson's recommendation. And among the 226 were 140 who also voted for an overall $6-billion slash in federal spending.

Some of those who hammered loudest on the spending bill didn't hesitate to plead with the Public Works Committee that reservoir, flood control and similar projects in their own districts be spared.

Congress did cut about $12 billion out of Johnson's budget requests of appropriations totaling $138.2 billion, for the fiscal year that began last July 1. Since there is a time lag between appropriations and actual outlays from the treasury, the appropriation and the spending figures for a given year do not agree.

Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee told his colleagues they had "reduced the budget requests of the executive branch by a greater amount than ever before in the nation's history."

But he added that the actual

Nat'l Output Increase in Spite of Tax

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP)—A panel of industry economists predicts an increase of some $60 billion in national output next year, nearly matching 1968's giant strides despite the tax increase.

The forecast was prepared for the fall meeting of the Business Council, blue-ribbon organization of industry executives, by its advisory team of some 20 professional economists.

The growth estimate would lift the Gross National Product to a total of about $915 billion. Sources said the forecast sees continued price inflation. Thus far in 1968 price increases have accounted for about half the GNP increases, which amounted to $21.2 billion in the first quarter, $21.7 billion in the second, and $17.9 billion in the third.

Chairman Arthur H. Okun of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, who is attending the closed business session as a guest, has insisted that the administration's anti-inflation package—surtax plus federal spending cutback—will be felt with some severity later this year and early next year.

Candidates Revive War Emphasis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Reports of a possible development in the Paris peace talks have revived emphasis on Vietnam in the presidential campaign.

Republican Richard M. Nixon says he'll not criticize President Johnson's decision for a bombing halt over North Vietnam, if it works. But Sen. Strom Thurmond—Nixon's ally in the South—warned Americans not to be lulled into thinking the war will end before election day.

Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey hasn't mentioned the bombing halt rumors, and his running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, refused to discuss what he knows about the Paris peace talks.

George C. Wallace, the third-party candidate for president, said he's feeling tired and suspended campaigning until his running mate, Curtis E. LeMay, returns from a tour of Vietnam.

Nixon told a rally in Johnston, Pa., Wednesday that, as before, he supports a bombing halt if it doesn't endanger U.S. troops and would improve prospects for peace.

He said the Republicans will support the President if a bombing halt is called and it meets Nixon's conditions.

Nixon said Johnson is "the one man who can make that determination... let's let him make that determination."

"We do not want to play politics with peace," said Nixon. Thurmond, R-S.C., told a Columbia, S.C., news conference: "It would be downright cheap politics if the administration tries to confuse the American people" into thinking the war will end soon.

"It's going to take a new administration with firmness and new policies to wind up the war," he said.

Newsman questioned Muskie in Chicago on developments in the Vietnam peace talks, but Muskie replied: "Would you like to have a frank exposure of what I know about what's going on in Paris or would you rather

Hanoi Balks on Bombing Halt Pact

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP)—U.S. fighter-bombers streaked through heavy monsoon clouds again today to continue their daily bombing of North Vietnam while the Saigon government continued to balk at agreeing to a bombing halt.

North Vietnam's leaders in Hanoi were reported studying a new U.S. proposal for cessation of all bombing of the North in return for serious moves toward peace by the Communists. But South Vietnam's premier, Tran Van Huong, said his government could accept no such proposal unless it was favorable to South Vietnam.

Huong told the official Vietnam press any agreement by Saigon would have to be approved by the National Assembly as well as the executive branch. Top political figures including the leaders of the House and Senate have discussed the plan and are understood to be cool toward it.

With the military men it was business as usual although some said they felt an eventual bombing halt now appeared inevitable. More air strikes over North Vietnam's panchannel were planned for Saturday.

Air Force, Navy and Marine jets today kept up their steady attack on enemy supply channels south of the 19th parallel. Reports on the raids will not be available until Saturday, but U.S. pilots logged 100 missions over North Vietnam Thursday, concentrating on boats and barges along coastal waterways.

Assessment of the damage was hampered by the poor weather but the pilots reported destroying or damaging 19 supply boats, two trucks, six warehouses and two bridges.

U.S. military sources said the American pilots are concentrating more on the waterways because there is less truck traffic moving south.

"There is a hell of a lot less truck traffic because of the interdiction campaign and because of the monsoons which have made some roads impassable," one source said. "There are more barges now. We'll be hitting these more and more."

Australia's small air contingent reported its biggest kill of the war so far, 40 Viet Cong killed by a Canberra jet bomber near Pleiku, in the central highlands. A spokesman said the bomber attacked an enemy troop concentration Wednesday night. The pilot reported "a large secondary explosion," and an observation pilot counted the bodies the next day, the spokesman said.
